December 11, 2014

Members of the Committee in attendance: Alia Zelinskaya, Michelle Horton (Chair), Anne Shanahan, Corinne Lythgoe (Vice-Chair), Tanya Sun. Absent: Laura Small, Rachael Bray, Kimberly Owens. Quorum present.

Others in attendance:

Citizens: Lisa Skumatz; Lea Yancey, Boulder County Sustainability Office.

Town Board Liaison: Joe Cirelli.

Staff: Martin Toth, Assistant Town Manager.

Agenda Items:

1. Presentation – PACE program overview. Lea Yancey reviewed with the Committee how the retooled PACE program is being re-launched after the start of the year. Updated program elements will include: prominent business recognition components with a focus on collaborating with jurisdictions around the County and their Chambers of Commerce, a broad certification program with incentives for participation, and continuing the sustainability grant program. PACE staff will plan to coordinate with Town staff and the Chamber of Commerce to help publicize the programs.
2. New Business and Updates
 - a. Dog Waste Compost Program – Rachael Bray presented the Committee's recommendation to implement this program at the Superior Dog Park during the Town Board's November 24 meeting. The Board approved initiating the program for a year. Staff has coordinated with the vendor and service will start the first week of January. Alia volunteered to write a newsletter article and Michelle will work with staff to contact Dog Park Facebook group members to help distribute information about the program.
 - b. Christmas Tree Compost Program with Scouts – staff is coordinating this year's program on January 10 with Boy Scout Troops 278 and 575.
 - c. Eco-Cycle Education Program End of Year Update – the Town provided support this year for Superior schools to participate in the Wise With Waste tours program and the Waste-Free Lunch Contest. Over 1600 hundred students participated in the programs this year.
 - d. Household Hazardous Waste and Hard to Recycle Collection Event (April 18, 9:00 am to noon, Eldorado K-8) – calendar note.
3. Discussion – 2015 Work Plan. The Committee discussed items to potentially be considered for next year's Work Plan. The Committee members will receive the updated list via email, and then plan to finalize during next month's meeting.

Next Meeting: Thursday, January 8, 5:30 p.m. at Town Hall
